Witch Doctor of Languor, Negrolazy

When it is retired at the end of turn, and you call it back to rear-guard circle with the GB2 ability of "Vampire Princess of Night Fog, Nightrose", and have it become hollowed...

If you use its AUTO ability when it is called again, even when it is retired due to the hollow ability, you CANNOT counter-charge and soul-charge!!

When retired due to the hollow ability, you CAN counter-charge!!

Steps of End Phase

Follow the steps in the order as shown below

1. The 3 below are done simultaneously:
  - Locked cards are unlocked
  - Deleted state is removed
  - G unit returns to G zone
2. AUTO abilities with “is unlocked”, “is turned face up”, and “is put into the G zone” resolve in any order as you wish.
3. AUTO abilities with “at the end of turn” and “at the beginning of the end phase” are triggered.
4. All AUTO abilities resolve in any order as you wish. Once they are resolved, all effects gained during that turn will disappear.
5. If there are AUTO abilities that have not been resolved, return to step 2. If all have been resolved, the opponent’s turn begins.

Witch Doctor of Languor, Negrolazy

“Witch Doctor of Languor, Negrolazy” is called, and becomes hollowed. Its AUTO ability that activates when placed is used. It gains the “is put into your drop zone due to the effect of a hollow ability” ability.

At step 3, the ability to retire “Negrolazy” at the end of the turn due to hollow is triggered.

At step 4, “Negrolazy” is retired. “Negrolazy” is called again with the GB2 ability of “Nightrose”.

As it was put into drop zone due to the hollow ability, soul-charge 1 and counter-charge 1

“Negrolazy” becomes hollowed when called again, and its AUTO ability that activates when placed is used. It gains the “is put into your drop zone due to the effect of a hollow ability” ability. However, as it the retiring due to hollow has not been triggered in step 4, before it is retired due to hollow, the “is put into your drop zone due to the effect of a hollow ability” ability that is active for this turn is lost.

Then, after returning to step 2 and moving on to step 3, as “Negrolazy” retired as it is hollowed. As it had lost the ability, you cannot soul-charge and counter-charge.

Chronodragon Gear Groovy

- Gains the AUTO ability from 2 face up <Gear Dragon> in your G zone
- Turn a card in your G zone face up, and gain +5000 power!!
